

Soft Rock Air

KevinSilvia.net

Couldn't put beer in the shopping cart

Holes, holes everywhere

A voice would cut clean

Into the soft rock air

Where do they keep all the dust in here?

There's items that just aren't there

And still there are stacks of paper

Exposed to the soft rock air

Finally got what I came here for

It was right in the smell of the store

Right under the cheap fluorescent

Glow of the soft rock air
